RENOVATION AWARDS

CHARACTER HOMES LTD.

Category 1: Addition

- A gorgeous back yard that the clients wanted to feel a part of resulted in a desire for a sunroom.
- The owner wanted to maintain the integrity and flow of the home, yet let the sunroom expand the views from the adjacent family room
- Windows, windows, windows! And a vaulted ceiling let the back yard and the vistas of sunsets ebb into the sunroom and radiate to the family room within.
- The abundant operating casement windows and large patio door give the room a screen porch feeling.
- The vaulted ceiling exaggerates the volume of the room, as does the peakhead window on the west elevation, making one feel as if they are surrounded by the beautifully manicured yard.
