

NEW HOME SALES AGENT TRAINING COURSE
Wednesday, September 8th & Thursday, September 9th, 2010
Two Evenings – 6:30 to 10 P.M.
Location: Norwood Hotel, 112 Marion Street

The Manitoba Home Builders' Association (MHBA) New Home Sales Agent Course is an introductory sales training course and a mandatory requirement for prospective New Home Sales Agents. The course covers the following topics:

- Advantages of a New Home/New Home Construction
- Financing of a New Home Purchase
- Legal Aspects of a New Home Purchase
- Attributes of Successful New Home Sales Staff

Due to a recent exemption order by the Manitoba Securities Commission, new home sales agents do not need to be licensed and registered with a broker. To qualify as a New Home Sales Agents, applicants must first complete the MHBA's New Home Sales Agents Course and exam. The exam is open book and will be written at the end of the second evening of the course. Within six months of successful completion of the NHTSA Course, applicants must find employment with an MHBA member builder to sell new homes and then be registered with the MHBA for a fee of $175.
